(Narrator): Listen to a story about students sharing amazing facts. You will answer questions 1 through 4 based on this story.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator): Alondra walked happily up the school stairs to meet her friends. She told them about the conversation she had with their classmate, Joel. “We shared some amazing facts!” she said. Joel told Alondra that twelve people have walked on the surface of the moon. She then told him that mercury is the only metal that is a liquid at room temperature.

Alondra’s friends were amazed. She taught them some interesting facts. At that moment, Alondra had an idea! “Let’s ask our teacher if we can publish a weekly newsletter with interesting facts! We can even ask students in other grades to contribute,” said Alondra excitedly.
