(Narrator): Listen to a passage about a memory box. You will answer questions 2 through 4 based on this passage.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator):

A memory box helps you remember special events, people, or places. Making one is easy. First, get an empty shoe box. To decorate it, paste colorful paper or magazine pictures on the outside. Finally, place your special objects or pictures in the memory box. You can make one for yourself or as a gift.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator): Now answer the following questions.

(Narrator): Listen to a passage about a boy named Raúl. You will answer questions 5 through 7 based on this passage.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator):

Raúl loves to play video games. He would like to add another game to his collection, so he is saving money to buy it. The video game he is interested in is a new basketball game that costs $50. Raúl already has $10 from helping his father around the house. Now he needs to figure out how to earn the rest of the money.

The next day, he asks Ms. Domínguez, his neighbor, if she needs anything done at her house. She tells him that he can mow and clean the front yard. Raúl does the job, and Ms. Domínguez pays him $20.

Ms. Domínguez is happy with Raúl's work, so she tells her neighbor, Mr. Madison. He then asks Raúl to help him plant a garden. Once that job is done, Mr. Madison pays Raúl $20.

After all that hard work, Raúl finally has the money he needs for his game! Most importantly, he feels proud of himself for earning the money on his own.
