(Narrator): Listen to a story about Juliana and Marissa. You will answer questions 4 through 8 based on this story.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator): Juliana is visiting Marissa in Puerto Rico. Juliana used to live in Aibonito, but now she lives in New York City. Marissa wants to know everything about New York City.

(Marissa): What's the city like?

(Juliana): It's very crowded. When I walk down my street, I see many people every day.

(Marissa): Are they nice?

(Juliana): Some are nice. Some are not. There are people from all over the world walking on Amsterdam Avenue.

(Marissa): What is Amsterdam Avenue?

(Juliana): It is a very long, busy street in New York City. I like it because it has many stores, and there are people from Puerto Rico there. It feels like home.

(Marissa): What countries are the other people from?

(Juliana): I met someone from France in a shop the other day. She was very nice. I think we could become good friends. Later that same day, I met a boy from Mexico. He was also very nice.

(Marissa): Tell me more about the city.

(Juliana): The part I live in is called Manhattan. It's an island, just like Puerto Rico.

(Marissa): Cousin, does Manhattan have a beach for swimming?

(Juliana): Not really. I miss the beaches in Puerto Rico. I like the Central Park Lake, though. It's quite close to where I live, and you can spot many birds there.

(Pause 2 seconds.)
