(Narrator): Listen to a story about a cleanup day at El Yunque National Forest. You will answer questions 1 and 2 based on this story.

(Pause 2 seconds.)

(Narrator): The Ramón Emeterio Betances tenth-grade class planned a cleanup day at El Yunque National Forest with Mrs. Torres and some parent volunteers. When they were gathering trash, they discovered an injured snake. Nancy handled it carefully while Carlos called the shelter and received instructions on how to help the wild animal. By the end of the day, the class had taken care of the snake, and the park was clean. Exhausted yet proud of what they had done, they celebrated their important efforts.
